Introduction

This Bible study sheet is available to assist you in taking notes as you watch the video titled: The Seven Elements of Prayer by Dawn Dyson Ministries.

We pray this lesson blesses you and bolsters your prayer time with the Lord!

God bless you!

Element One

Envision the _____.

Who is seated upon the Throne of Heaven? _____, _____,
_____.

After reading Revelation 4:1-6, describe the throne of God and what Heaven looks like:

Summarize the Oswald Chambers' quote in your own words.

What does it mean to approach God "as a little child"?

God wants you to _____.

And, God wants to _____.

There are _____ mentions of the word "pray" in the Bible (based on AMPC).

Look up 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 and write it out:

Being honest with yourself, and with the Lord, do you find any part of that verse especially challenging? Can you ask God now for help in that area?

"Pray" is most often mentioned in what book of the Bible? _____ Why?

Element Two

Give _____ for your many blessings.

Take a moment to write out several things you are thankful to God for, including the many times in your past He has saved you.

Proseuchomai (pross—oo—hha-my) is the Greek word for _____.

How do you define prayer and what does it mean to you?

After praying Psalm 116, can you recall a time that was very difficult in your life?

How did the Lord solve the problem?

Have you shared what the Lord has done for you with others?

If not, is there a way you can “pay your vows to the Lord” this week?

Element Three

Pray the Lord's Prayer as _____ .

Forgiveness is nailing someone else's sin to the cross.

When we refuse to forgive, we are, in our own hearts, negating the work Jesus did there! He died for all sin. When we forgive we accept what Christ died for, and we free ourselves from former bondage and pain. It is good when considering forgiveness to say to yourself, "I have suffered long enough." This helps us to let past hurts go.

Take a moment and search your heart. Is there anyone you need to forgive that you have not?

Whether it is possible for you to communicate with that individual directly or not, consider writing a short note below telling that person you forgive them. It is not necessary that anyone see what you have written but you and the Lord.

When considering forgiveness, it helps to recount all the things God has forgiven you for. Please thank God for forgiving your mistakes by writing out a brief prayer of thanks below.

What part of the Lord's Prayer speaks to you the most right now?

Element Four

Pray a passage of Scripture and _____ it.

John 17 is called the _____ prayer.

One of Jesus' main points was the concept of Unity with God and other believers. What does being "one with God" mean to you?

Choose a brief passage from the Word of God and personalize it. Consider what the passage is teaching, how it applies to your life, and then pray that passage to the Lord.

Element Five

Listen to the _____, _____ voice of God.

Our speaking is only _____ of the dialog involved in prayer.

How do you know you are hearing from God?

- 1) _____.
- 2) Believe _____ is _____.
- 3) God's spoken word is in line with His _____ _____.

Jesus' sacrifice paid for God's good _____ for you.

Write out Matthew 7:7-8.

Is there anything in your life that has you discouraged lately? If so, write it down.

Do you believe the Lord is encouraging you to keep asking, seeking, and knocking with regard to this issue?

Read Matthew 6:6 and Matthew 18:19. This week, can you endeavor to pray to the Lord in secret about this issue each day? Do you have another Christian you trust who would agree with you for victory in this area, and pray with you about it?

Matthew Henry states, "Despair of success hinders many a good enterprise." Is there any area in your life in which you are more afraid of success than failure? If so, please take it to the Lord in prayer.

Element Six

Give _____ for God's new _____.

Write out John 14:26.

Why is the Holy Spirit called "Advocate"? This means, Helper.

Look up the word "advocate" by clicking here:

<http://webstersdictionary1828.com/Dictionary/advocate>

After reading the entire definition, and understanding that prayer is entering the Throne Room of God, why is it important to have the Holy Spirit residing in you?

God is P_____.

The _____ is the guidebook for life.

The Holy Spirit of God is a Master of _____.

He is the B_____ of God.

Prayer is s_____, not complicated. Often what complicates it is a hard heart. We simplify prayer by softening our heart and making love a priority. List three ways you can soften your heart toward God right now:

3)

Element Seven

Remain in the _____, allow Him time to _____ you and _____ you.

Prayer is not to be intimidating. While we reverence God greatly, we come to Him for direction and guidance, and also to wait in His loving presence.

If Jesus needed prayer, so do we! He “went off” to spend time alone with God often. On a scale of 1 to 10, with 1 being “rarely” and 10 being “often” rate the amount of time you spend with the Lord, on average:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Do you feel you need more time with God? Yes | No

If you answered “yes”, please list at least one way you can increase your time with God this month.

After studying the Lord’s Prayer, John 17, and the other passages set forth in this lesson, list several things you think Jesus prayed to the Father about.

Pray Isaiah 40:31 to the Lord, asking Him for new strength, wings like eagles, and energy to not become tired or to faint in your faith. When you are finished speaking to the Lord, please allow yourself peace, tranquility, and quietness. Do nothing but wait upon the Lord and let Him love you.

Recap

Please list the seven elements of prayer as set forth in this lesson:

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)
- 4)
- 5)
- 6)
- 7)

Write out your main “take away” from this lesson. Of all the things that you learned, what means the most to you in your relationship with God?

Thank You

Please know, GOD LOVES YOU.

We thank you for participating in this Bible study,
And may God richly bless you each day of your life!
